How It Works?

Participants are divided into teams and take part in a live quiz hosted by a professional quiz master. Using connected tablets, teams answer questions displayed in real time on a large screen.

The activity can be organised during a dinner, meeting or afterwork, creating a lively and entertaining atmosphere.

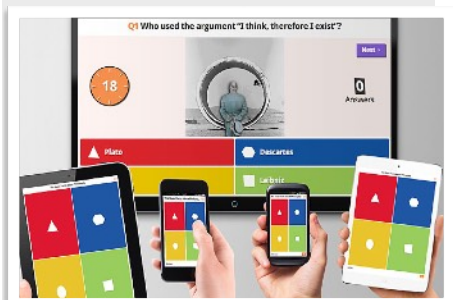

The Quiz:

Teams compete by answering a series of questions covering topics such as music, movies, celebrities, animals, sports and general knowledge. Scores are displayed live, adding excitement throughout the game.

Up to five customised questions related to your company or guests can be included.

Meal & Venue:

The activity can take place in a restaurant, hotel, or private venue. We can also recommend a location for your group based on your size and budget.

How It Works?

Participants are divided into teams and tasked with designing and building a section of a domino circuit, either on tables or on the floor. Each section must then be connected to the others to create a single, continuous chain reaction leading to a shared final outcome (triggered object, revealed logo, final message, etc.).

Success relies on collective coordination: if one section fails, the entire circuit stops.

The Challenge:

Teams are invited to design the most creative and seamless circuit, evaluated by our jury. The activity encourages creativity, focus, communication, and mutual trust, while fostering a fun and engaging group dynamic.

The final moment, when the entire circuit is launched simultaneously creates a powerful, unifying highlight for all participants.

Wrap-Up & Action Planning

A workshop combining coaching and team building to strengthen team cohesion. Led by a certified coach, it blends interactive and engaging games with guided discussions to help participants build trust, enhance mutual understanding, and gain practical tools for more effective day-to-day collaboration. A fun and transformative experience that strengthens connections and moves the team forward in the same direction.

How It Works?

Our carefully designed session blends interactive fun activities and exercises, group reflection, and professional coaching—balancing learning, self-awareness, and fun.

- Communication Awareness: Identify your team's communication styles and how they impact collaboration.
- Active Listening & Expression: Learn to listen deeply, express ideas clearly, and build mutual respect.
- Trust & Cohesion: Engage in activities that transform challenges into shared insights and strengthen team bonds.

Each experience ends with a guided coaching debrief, transforming key insights into immediate, actionable takeaways.

The Team Synergy Lab reconnects people, strengthens trust, and reignites the joy of working together toward shared goals.

Wellness Activities for Team Connection

Boost relaxation, creativity, and team bonding through hands-on activities like Candle Making, Art Painting, Yoga, Automassage, and Sylvotherapy.

Held in inspiring venues with delicious catering, the program is flexible to match your team's goals and budget. Choose one or combine several—each experience strengthens team spirit while promoting well-being and innovation

How It Works?

Our curated day blends interactive workshops, wellness activities, and expert talks—balancing fun, relaxation, and learning.

Choose your focus:

- Creative Workshops: Candle making, painting, and more to boost creativity and team spirit.
- Wellness Sessions: YOGA, Automassage, or Sylvotherapy to recharge and refocus.
- Inspiring Talks: Expert insights on well-being, stress management, motivation, communication and team work.

The day begins with breakfast and icebreakers, followed by your choice of sessions. Enjoy a BBQ lunch, then wrap up with engaging talks, relaxation, and networking. Flexible and customizable to suit your team.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

♦ What is the SetUp Fee?

These fees encompass the agency charges for organising and planning the event.

The cost varies based on factors such as the nature of the activity, the time spent in preparation, and the required equipment.

♦ Wha is the price per person?

These are the costs of the staff and the equipment needed for the activity.

Some activities also include meals and drinks, such as the culinary concept "Master Chef" and "Master Sushi" etc.

♦ Do you have any additional services?

Upon request, we have the flexibility to incorporate extra services into the team building activity. These may include conference or meeting room arrangements, business lunch options, walking dinners, finger food, BBQ setups, transportation, accommodation, and more.

We tailor our offers to align with your budget and preferences.

♦ Does the price of the activity include catering?

This brochure includes pricing for the activity only. Catering services are available through our selected partners. While we offer set menu options, we can also create personalized packages tailored to your preferences and budget.

They Trusted us!

We have worked with local and global organizations, building strong relationships and an outstanding reputation with a number of our major clients. Through our strategic relationships with reliable partners, we have been able to provide for our clients quality work on an ongoing basis.
